STREET REPAIR PLAN DEBATED BY COUNCILMEN

Most Economical Method

ENGINEER SETS

Hearing On Re-Routing
Highway Traffic Is Scheduled

Although taking no definite plan of action, members of city council Tuesday night continued discussion of the repair of streets damaged by the freezing and thawing weather.

C. F. Zimmerman, chairman of the streets, alleys and sidewalks committee, indicated that the city wanted to get work started as soon as possible on the repair and resurfacing of the damaged thoroughfares, and recommended that the city advertise for the work under two separate bids.

Economy Is Sought
He said it was the committee's recommendation to advertise for the material and labor necessary for the work, and also to advertise for the material only, with the work to be done by service department employees. The procedure which then appears to be the most economical would be adopted, he explained.

No action was taken during council session and a committee meeting for further discussion was held afterwards.

Total cost of resurfacing W State st., N. and S. Lincoln avenues and Newgarden ave. has been estimated by the city engineer at $5,460.

The head of the streets committee also reported that the City Cold Patch Co. of Youngstown, which laid the asphalt surface on Maple st., had agreed to cooperate in the repair of several holes in the street which resulted from the asphalt being poured when the weather was too cool.

Solicitor Henry L. Reese announced that the state highway department would hold a hearing at city hall April 24 on the city's request to have Star Route 9 traffic traverse S. Ellsworth ave. instead of S. Howard and the north end of Newgarden ave. Members of the streets, alleys and sidewalks committee of city council will attend the hearing.

Recommend Reconciliation
Arch H. Wentz, chairman of the ordinance committee, reported that the committee recommended the reorganization of the city's ordinance at the last session. An ordinance on the proposal probably will be presented at an early meeting.

Final passage was given to an ordinance abolishing a 160-foot alley near W. Eighth st. and Jennings ave.

The request of Steve Coscarella that the city purchase the old Stark Electric right-of-way, between N. Howard ave. and the Pennsylvania tracks, and the slag on it, was referred to the streets, alleys and sidewalks committee.

Coscarella said that he and City Electrician Les Saunders have purchased the land and may put a power shovel on the scene soon to reclaim the slag.

Fred Munnell gave a $300 estimate on the repair of the pumping station.

High School Is Not Selling Magazines

Salem High school students are not engaged in any magazine subscription campaign, in behalf of the school, it was announced today by school authorities.

The statement was prompted by reports that a young man, who claimed he was a sophomore, had been soliciting subscriptions throughout the city.

He gave a name which does not exist on the school roster and a room number which the school does not have.

LEUL JUNIORS TO RALLY HERE

The Salem Roumanian "Leul" Juniors will be hosts this weekend for the Junior union Ohio regional meeting and dance.

The meeting will get under way at 9 p. m. Saturday in "Leul" hall with a dance. A banquet Sunday afternoon will follow a session Sunday morning.

Nicholas Balandu, national president of the Union and League of Roumanian Societies of America, will deliver the address at the banquet.

The dance Saturday night will be from 9 until 1 a. m., followed by a party from 1 until 2:30, the committee announced. Music will be furnished by Tony Rose's radio orchestra from Canton, featuring Babe Chnel as soloist.

The dance committee is headed by Stefan Cana, assisted by Valentine Moga and Sam Pridon, decorations.

Banquet arrangements have been completed by Earl Orashan, Nick Buta, Steve Tarzan and Serafin Buta. The dinner will be served by members of the Society "Leul" Ladies auxiliary, Mrs. John Copacina, Mrs. Annetta Pitar, Mrs. Steve Coscarella, Mrs. Josim Pridon, Mrs. Valentine Moga, Mrs. Patru Taffan and Mrs. John Ubersax.

Dinner speakers will include John Lica, national Junior union president; Gabriel Mihuta, national vice president of the Union and League of Roumanian Societies of America, John Copacina, president of the local society, and Stefan Oana, banquet chairman.

BURTON SPEAKS AT E. LIVERPOOL

Urges Peace, Hits Concentration of Power
In President

EAST LIVERPOOL, April 3.—Mayor Harold H. Burton of Cleveland opened his campaign for the Republican nomination for United States senator here last night with a demand for a "determined national peace policy" to avoid bankruptcy and a dangerous concentration of power in the president.

"Stay Out of War"
"I urge and contend that America stay out of the wars we see today," the mayor said.

The banquet and rally drew Republicans from Columbiana county and from adjacent counties.

Four hundred persons crowded the High school auditorium to hear Burton. The dinner preceding his talk was held in the Travelers hotel where Atty Ben L. Bennett presided as toastmaster.

The affair was held under auspices of the Columbiana County Young Republicans club.

"There are wars which must sometimes be fought," Burton said. "For example, I would not 'unfight' the wars that America has fought."

"But certainly, in comparison with these wars there is nothing in the present conditions which would approach a justification for America's entry into the wars now being fought. In fact, there are grave reasons for staying out of these wars that existed when we entered the World War in 1917."

Worries of Infinite Debt
"There is another unprecedentedly great danger attached to entry into war. Now there is a great concentration of power in the President than has ever before existed in time of peace, and if we are to add to this the wartime powers of a president and couple it with the extraordinary financial emergency which would arise from a great increase in debt, we would be subjecting our free and representative government, with its unique balance of powers, to a strain far greater than any to which it has before been subjected and with far less likelihood of the extraordinary concentration of powers following the war."

"The two dangers," the mayor continued, "are ample to emphasize the need for a determined peace policy and to emphasize the wisdom of placing the trusteeship of that peace in the Republican party, which is devoted to the reduction of the national debt and to the decrease of the executive powers of the president."

Liquor Aid Fined
WILMINGTON, April 3.—Mayor C. Q. Hildebrandt fined Ralph Reeves, 39, a state liquor inspector, $100 for driving while intoxicated. Reeves pleaded guilty yesterday, said Ralph W. Weimer of Lorain, also a liquor inspector, appealed conviction on a similar charge. Both were arrested March 2.

Ohio River Rise Slowed;
Fears of Floods Are Dissipated

(By Associated Press)
WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 3.—The threat of disease—dread aftermath of disastrous floods—stalked weary riverside communities in Eastern Pennsylvania today as high waters subsided and the first of thousands of refugees began returning home.

Only a forecast of more rain tempered a "worst-is-over" feeling that prevailed along a 150-mile stretch of the Susquehanna river where at least 30,000 persons were driven to higher ground by a three-day assault of turbulent waters.

Recession General
The stream's recession was general from its headwaters in New York state south to Chesapeake bay.

A new hazard was created in Kingston, across the river from here, when two 8,000 gallon gasoline tanks were toppled by the current, spilling gasoline over the floodwaters. National guardsmen and firemen with necessary equipment mounted on rafts stood by to guard against an outbreak of flames.

With the start of a "back-home" movement, authorities launched the mammoth task of cleaning up and quickly prepared to combat any possible epidemics. Three refugee children were stricken with scarlet fever yesterday.

A center for such patients will be established at nearby Nanticoke. A pool of typhoid fever vaccine was set up here for necessary inoculations and the state department of health sent a motorized laboratory to travel up and down the flood area testing drinking water.

National work projects administration officials were asked to provide 50 tons of chloride of lime for disinfecting.

Ohio's Surge Halted
CINCINNATI, April 3.—Its rise slowed almost to a halt, the Ohio river neared anticipated crests well below flood stage today, with scant fear felt among boatmen for showers that might come.

The stream, which rose to a "flash flood" in Pittsburgh earlier in the week, was falling between Wheeling, W. Va., and Marietta, O., and was stationary below Parkersburg, W. Va.

From dam 29, above Portsmouth, to dam 37 at Fernbank, 10 miles west of Cincinnati, its rate of rise was diminished by a third to a half that receded yesterday.

At Fernbank, the river edged past 43 feet, nine feet shy of flood level but at an upward pace of only .15 of a foot hourly.

The weather bureau stood pat on a predicted 45 foot crest for the Cincinnati area and said occasional light rains would not change the situation.

John Yoder, Retired
Farmer, Dies at 84

COLUMBIANA, April 3.—John L. Yoder, 84, retired farmer, died at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday following a short illness of influenza at his home on the Canfield rd.

Born at Leontina Sept. 1, 1855, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Yoder, he had lived in this vicinity all his life. He was married to Mary Nold at Columbiana on Dec. 30, 1883. His wife died in 1909. Mr. Yoder was a member of the M. W. Y. M. M. church.

He is survived by three sons, Alvin, at home, Rev. Paul Yoder of E. D. Columbiana, Emer of Biglerville, Pa., four daughters, Ada and Elizabeth, at home, Mrs. Abraham Wenger of Fentleff, Va., Mrs. Daniel Martin of R. D. Columbiana; and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Mennonite church, in charge of Rev. A. J. Steiner. Burial will be in the Midway cemetery. Friends may call at the home anytime.

Postoffice Awaits
Speed-up Equipment
Inauguration of an improved mail delivery service in Salem, scheduled for April 1, has been delayed by failure of new equipment to arrive at the postoffice. Postmaster A. E. Beardmore said today.

Dispatching of mail at the postoffice, carrier deliveries and parcel post service are expected to be speeded up when the program of improvement, recommended by United States Postal Inspectors J. M. Murphy and J. Ivey, Jr., go into effect.

Wisconsin Democrats Favor Third Term; Dewey Leads; Kansas City Clean-Up Wins

TOM PENDERGAST MACHINE FALLS

Democrats, Republicans and Campaigning Women
Are Victors

KANSAS CITY, April 3.—Aroused cleanup forces, led by 7,500 actively campaigning women, tore Kansas City's scandal-gripped city hall away from Tom Pendergast's machine yesterday.

The victory, achieved by a fusion of independent Democrats, Republicans and civic leaders, was almost as decisive as any the erstwhile Democratic boss ever achieved for his puppets.

Gage Elected Mayor
Fusionists elected John B. Gage, Democratic lawyer, mayor by 20,000 votes and swept seven of their eight councilmanic candidates and both municipal judges into office with him.

Pendergast, at his peak, elected U. S. senators, governors, state supreme court judges and legislators. He controlled the city hall 14 years.

After April 17, when Mayor Gage and his cohorts move into the multi-million dollar city hall—built with Pendergast concrete—the machine will have only a few county offices left.

The concerted campaign to oust Pendergast really got its big push from the 1936 presidential election frauds. More than 200 election officials and politicians, both Democrats and Republicans, were indicted. Not one was acquitted.

During the machine regime, a $20,000,000 a year gambling racket and a $12,000,000 a year narcotics ring operated in Kansas City. Pendergast himself accepted nearly $500,000 for his influence in setting a $9,500,000 fire insurance rate case.

Then Came the Women
Then came Tuesday's election and the women.

They rallied behind the plea "wanted: 75,000 women with pioneer courage let us keep faith with those who blazed the trail." They were given much of the credit for the fusion victory. Some 7,500 of them worked election day, getting out the vote, caring for babies while mothers went to the polls and handing out campaign literature.

Takers of Census
Inspect Day's Work
LISBON, April 3.—Census enumerators who started the task of counting the population of Columbiana county Tuesday morning met in court room No. 2 here yesterday afternoon. Their work was inspected by John B. Fickes of Wellsville, district census director.

After correcting minor errors, the group was further instructed as to their duties, and instructed to again report at the court house here Saturday afternoon for inspection.

Roosevelt Given New York Ballots, If He Wants Them

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 3.—President Roosevelt seems assured of the 94 convention votes of his home state, New York, if he wants a third term.

The presidential campaign management of Vice President Garner struck at the Roosevelt third-term movement yesterday in New York's primary election, and failed.

In the only four congressional districts where the regular organization designees for delegates to the convention were opposed, Garner men were beaten overwhelmingly.

Thomas E. Dewey, aspirant for the Republican presidential nomination, who is expected to have the bulk of New York's 92 delegates of that party—with Frank Gannett, the Rochester publisher, taking the remainder—won by a margin of around 6 to 1 in the only contest specifically directed against him. This was in the 16th district.

G. O. P. IN OHIO OPENING DRIVE

Democrats Call for Narrowing of Gubernatorial Field

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, April 3.—Ohio Republicans launched their 1940 campaign at a state-wide rally here today while hints were heard in Democratic circles that some of the eight candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination might withdraw.

Virtually every Republican seeking state or national office was to be introduced and given a chance to say a few words at the party's "dress parade" in the Columbus auditorium.

Notably excluded was Addison Q. Trachner, former Toledo mayor, who is opposing Gov. John W. Bricker's renomination bid.

Bricker is billed for a principal address tonight.

Other principal speakers include Sen. Robert A. Taft, the Ohio organization's "favorite son" candidate for the Republican presidential nomination; Kenneth F. Simpson, national committeeman from New York, and Rep. Thomas A. Jenkins of Ironton, dean of the Ohio G. O. P. delegation in the house.

Ohio Democracy, official Democratic publication, expressed the "hope" in an editorial that the number of Democrats running for governor "may be drastically reduced" by "tomorrow, the final day for withdrawals."

Immediately there were reports of conferences designed to narrow the field.

The newspaper contended that each of the candidates "owes something" to the party and should "feel that the party is bigger and more important than the personal aspirations of any individual."

The Republican state central committee endorsed every Republican incumbent of a state-wide office seeking renomination, including Congressmen-at-Large George H. Bender and L. L. Marshall, both of Cleveland.

FDR IS LEADING GARNER 3 TO 1

Dewey Delegates Polling
2 to 1 Vote Over
Vandenberg

(By Associated Press)
MILWAUKEE, April 3.—Wisconsin Democrats endorsed a third term for President Roosevelt although incomplete returns from Tuesday's primary gave no assurance today that he would capture all of the state's 24 delegates to the Democratic national convention.

With more than half of the vote counted, the President was leading Vice-President John N. Garner in the presidential preference poll by a ratio of nearly 3 to 1.

Dewey Leads Vandenberg
Meanwhile, the Republicans were rolling up a large lead for delegates pledged to vote for the nomination of District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Dewey candidates for delegate-at-large were polling approximately two votes to each one for candidates committed to Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan.

Neither Dewey nor Vandenberg was entered in the presidential preference primary, which is advisory and not at all binding on the delegates.

Returns from 1844 precincts out of 3,011 gave: Roosevelt 168,210; Garner 56,806.

A factional fight among the New Dealers provided a chance for the Garnerites to elect their delegates, but returns from 1,336 precincts showed their front-running candidate for delegate-at-large trailing the top four who are pledged to the President. Two of the latter ran on a slate which was brought out in opposition to that backed by National Committeeman Charles E. Broughton.

The vote in 1,336 precincts: Charles Hammersley, state conference endorsed Roosevelt candidate, 34,495; Francis McGovern, his runner-up, 18,210.

Columbiana to Get Help In Park Work

COLUMBIANA, April 3.—Announcement was made at the meeting of council at city hall last night that the Village of Columbiana has been notified by the WPA that federal funds have been allocated to Firestone park for the purchase of black top material for surfacing driveways.

The black top material is to be placed on the slag surfaces by WPA labor. The machinery for this work will be furnished by the town.

Council authorized the fire department to purchase two tarpaulins 14x18 feet to be used for protection of home furnishings in fighting fires. All members were present and Mayor Arthur Myers presided.

ALL RESOURCES ARE MOBILIZED, GOERING SAYS

Fails to Provide Hint,
However, As to Time
of Blitzkrieg

"IN THE WEST" IS SCHEDULED POINT

Addresses Heiling Airmen
On Heels of Raid at Scapa Flow

(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, April 3.—Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, chief of Germany's mighty air force, declared today that "the fuhrer has mobilized all resources" for a decisive blow "in the west" against the British and French.

Goering gave no hint as to when the signal for a blitzkrieg would be given, saying only that Hitler would decide when the time had come to "end the war."

"Having their rear and flanks secure," the field marshal said, "the German armed forces in one firm blow are facing Britain and France in the west."

"The Decisive Blow"
"It is here that the decisive blow must be struck and for this decisive blow the fuhrer has mobilized all resources."

The speech was delivered before a heiling audience of fledgling airmen on the heels of another German bombing sortie against the British naval anchorage at Scapa Flow, in the Orkney islands.

The crews of a flight of Heinkels, which swept in upon Scapa Flow in yesterday's dusk, reported scoring bomb hits on a number of warships lying there. They radiated that bombs of "the largest caliber" struck some of the warcraft, and that bombs which exploded upon hitting the water damaged others.

One warship was said to have listed heavily following the attack while fire and clouds of smoke billowed from another, according to a DNB (official news agency) version of the fliers' reports.

The British insisted that no warships were damaged and added that one of the 20 raiding planes was believed to have been struck down in the aerial combat touched off by the attack.

Admit One Plane Down
The regular communiqué of the German high command acknowledged that one reconnaissance plane, engaged by three British pursuit planes, was forced to alight on the sea, but that its crew was rescued by another German scouting craft.

Air fighting on the western front was reported to have resulted in the shooting down of three enemy planes while two German planes were said to be missing.

"Germany will strike a deadly blow when Hitler is determined to end the war," Goering declared. "He indicated that the fuhrer has a lightning war—like that used to crush the Polish armies—in store for his British and French enemies."

The war was "forced upon Germany," he asserted, "but we smashed the Polish army in 18 days. We struck a blow which our enemy will hardly forget."

"When the time comes we shall strike a blow at the western powers with the same strength."

Salem, Lisbon Men Will Get Hearings

Two Columbiana county men, against whom grand jury indictments are still pending, will be given hearings in common pleas court in Lisbon Friday morning.

One of the men, Victor J. O'Sullivan, is under indictment for a $44 theft at the Hillard grocery in Salem in 1936. He was taken into custody at the Mansfield reformatory yesterday by Sheriff M. K. Dwyer when another sentence expired.

Lake was sentenced to the reformatory following his indictment by the grand jury in connection with the theft of cheese from a cheese factory at New Philadelphia.

Harry Rigdon of Lisbon will be given a hearing Friday on an indictment charging burglary and larceny. The defendant was nabbed at Freeport, Pa., yesterday and turned over to Columbiana county authorities who charge him with stealing clothing from the Binsley store in Lisbon several months ago.

Sales of New Cars
Hit High in March
LISBON, April 3.—New car sales for March reached a new high in Columbiana county, with 299 certificates of title being issued from the office of Clerk of Courts, Carl Stacey, as compared with 263 in March, 1939, and 188 issued during February of this year.

In addition to the new automobiles sold by dealers during March, 57 new trucks were delivered, and five motorcycles sold, according to Clerk Stacey's report. Truck sales also show an increase over 40 sold in the corresponding month last year, and 23 new trucks for which certificates of title were issued during February, 1940.

"SELF MADE GIRL" by HAZEL LIVINGSTON

CHAPTER XXVI

Mr. Scott considered. He was, she knew, thinking of something special for her. No ordinary job. He had said—"a girl of your type—"

"There's an old friend, Senator Arnold. He and father were great friends in Washington. By the way, now that I remember it, father thought a lot of you. He had a name for you... let me see... what was it?"

"I don't know," Linda said. She was nervous. Now he was going to remember who she was. The old senator had known well enough.

"Oh, I remember—the little savage. That was it—he called you the little savage!"

"Little savage!" Linda was aghast. "Funny, wasn't it? You were such a quiet, sunny little thing. One of his jokes. He was a great joker. But to get back to Senator Arnold. He's well along in years now and quite an art collector. Quite a figure. He'd know anyone who'd be wanting a secretary. Of course, you couldn't be, but I think it would be quite likely that he'd look after you... You... you are serious about going so far?"

"Oh, yes. I—I have to get away. I haven't had a vacation for a long while. I really must go somewhere—at once. Would you really write to the senator?"

"Why, yes—I can do it right now. And then I'll have to be on my way, if I'm to keep my engagement. And, if you change your mind and don't, it will be all right, of course."

"I won't change my mind." "Well then—" She waited while he seated himself at a desk in the writing room, and took pen and paper. Then she spoke:

"Instead of Linda—which I've rather outgrown, as you bet name, please write it Lynn Perry."

The idea had just occurred to her. An advertisement for a Theater Guild play starring Lynn Fontaine had caught her eye.

Afterwards, as she read the letter Mr. Scott had given her to take to California, she felt a new person already.

"Dear Senator: This will introduce my young friend, Lynn Perry, a classmate of my Constance, and a great pet of father's."

"Lynn has decided that she has had about all of New York she can stand. She is going to San Francisco to look for a position and she is capable of holding a good one, as you will discover for yourself. Of course, she knows shorthand and typing and all that."

"I feel sure that you, who collect art and proteges and are interested in all young people, will be interested in her and, perhaps, help her get settled in the right place."

"Sincerely," "CLYDE SCOTT."

Lynn Perry... a classmate of Constance Scott Emory... a favorite of old Senator Scott... someone in whom Senator Arnold would be interested.

Lynn who, until an hour ago, had been Linda, put her letter away carefully. Her mind was made up. Burning bridges was quick work. She didn't risk saying goodbye to Hester. A letter from the train would be best. Nor would she tell the family what she was doing until it was too late for them to try to dissuade her.

To Robert Deaming, she said nothing except that family affairs necessitated her giving up her position, and leaving the city at once. If he thought she was going to Philadelphia, so much the better.

At first, he pooh-poohed the idea. "Don't dramatize yourself. They'll manage without you, families all ways do," he said.

"No, I'm quite serious. I must go."

"The old friend of the family advised you?"

"No—no, I—I must go."

"Very well," he said. He took up his pen and began signing the letters she had brought him.

She had planned to leave on the first. On the thirteenth he came to her with her check. "It is the policy of the firm," he said, "to permit an employee to take the two weeks, rather than to stay on."

"You wouldn't like me to help break in another girl?"

"I do not believe that will be necessary," he said stiffly.

That afternoon, he called for a young woman who had worked for one of the lesser executives, in the outer office. She was smart looking, beautifully groomed, a trace of hardness in her bright, good looks.

"This time he's making sure he's getting the right girl," Linda thought.

She went to say goodbye to Mr. Bottinger, the only person in the place for whom she had any feeling. But he had not forgiven her.

He was kind, but very, very dignified. He did not, Linda saw, recognize that his superior had made a mistake. He just thought that Deaming had grown tired of her, as he had of Mrs. Green.

"And please say goodbye to Mrs. Bottinger, and the girls."

"I will, indeed. Thank you so much." He pressed the button at the side of his desk. The interview was over.

Linda thought of kind, little Mrs. Bottinger, of gentle, friendly Adeline and Vera. She had an unreasonable desire to cry. Unreasonable because in the many months since she had left Mr. Bottinger's office, she could have seen them, had she cared to. Now, she saw, it was too late.

On the way home she hesitated about dropping in at Tanya's. She was lonely and she wanted to talk to someone. The old crowd at Tanya's, outside of the kindly Bottingers and Hester, were the only friends she'd really made.

But King would be there... and it would hurt.

So she packed her trunk and prepared to leave, almost as friendless, she thought, as when she came, nearly five years ago.

Dressed in her smart black, the fur collar of the plaid topcoat turned up against the November chill, Lynn Perry boarded the Twentieth Century, and felt that she'd left Linda, and all the past behind.

She would have liked a compartment, or at least a bedroom. Coming in an ordinary Pullman wasn't just the way the Lynn Perry of the Twentieth Century would travel. But she hadn't been able to afford even a lower berth.

She was sailing close to the wind again, with less than a hundred dollars to see her through the trip, and take care of her until she found work in San Francisco. She smiled to herself as she thought how upsetting this would be to the Lynn Perry she was supposed to be. But thank goodness there was enough of the hardy Linda left to still take chances!

She didn't look poor any more, and nobody would know that she had deliberately asked for an upper berth. Travel was heavy, and lots of people had to take them, whether they had money for lower or not.

And then her natural common sense came to the rescue, and she was ashamed of her snobbishness. Not that it's real snobbishness, she thought. It's just that I've got a part to play—and I'm going to play it!

Morning found her in Chicago. So far west that she wondered why she hadn't thought of stopping, instead of going still farther. And then she was on the train again, really on her way to San Francisco.

Shown to a seat in the dining car, with a large, impressive looking woman who also seemed to be traveling alone, Linda kept to herself in her best New York manner, saying not a word beyond "Thank you" for the menu, and the salt.

The woman's handsome clothing, her air of self-assurance told Linda that here was somebody who was "somebody"—but she was too cautious to make the first advances.

The next morning at breakfast she was seated with the same woman again and this time she smiled as she sat down, and the large woman said, "This is very nice. I was getting bored with myself. Are you alone, too?"

"Come and sit with me a while," the woman suggested after breakfast, and Linda followed her through her own car, into a drawing room in the one ahead.

"I hate traveling alone—I never did before. But since Dr. Rons passed away—" She got out a large white handkerchief, and looked steadily out of the window for a little while before going on—"I've been alone. So now I'm going to San Francisco to visit my son, and then I'm going on to Santa Barbara to stay with my younger daughter, Mrs. Mitchell Chase, and see her baby. I think I have a picture of her in my bag. She's such a sweet baby. Karl—Dr. Rons—thought she looked more like me than she does her own mother, and I rather think she does. THERE!—I know I had it."

Linda looked from the dimpled infant in its long, lace-trimmed christening dress, to the time-ravaged face of the middle-aged dowager, and had to admit they were alike.

Never was there such a loquacious woman, once her tongue was unleashed, never such a friendly soul, as this plump, expensively clad widow of the late Dr. Karl Rons, who made millions in the auto industry, and gave millions to science.

Last and lonely since his death only a few weeks before, she had been unable to bring herself to close her Long Island home and go to any of her married children.

"It's too much like admitting the end of things," she said, "and that's what it is, I suppose. Now, that's the difference between us. You have your life ahead, and mine is finished, though I've got to go on living—and in a way I still want to live. So I wrote Sara—that's my eldest daughter—Mrs. Milton Van Wyck, in Pittsburgh, that I'd come to her for a little while later, and I'd spend a while with Katherine in Santa Barbara, and as I said, I'm stepping off in San Francisco to see Horace, my son. They want me to stay with them—his wife, Emille—she was a Wilton—is such a sweet girl, but you know how a daughter-in-law is never like your own, and so I said no, absolutely no. I'd stay at a hotel. No one can say I'm an interfering mother-in-law."

Today's Pattern

JUMPER COSTUME
Pattern 4314

You'll find a whole spring-into-summer wardrobe for kiddies in Pattern 4314! This practical, gay Anne Adams style makes both a playdress and a jumper ensemble. The jumper and sun-frock are cut on identical lines, with blithely flared, one piece easy-to-make skirts and jaunty back buttonings. The bodices form smart points wherever they meet the sturdy straps. Let the dainty blouse have a collar or gay frills and bows. Make the sleeves either pretty puffed or long and full. Then top off the jumper outfit with an elfin cap to match. Bloomers are also included in this "must have" style for your little girl.

Pattern 4314 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, sundress and bloomers, takes 2½ yards 35 inch fabric; jumper and cap, 1½ yards 35 inch fabric; blouse, ¾ yard contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Are you a "problem child" as far as your figure is concerned? If you are irregularly proportioned let ANNE ADAMS PER-FIT FOUNDATION PATTERN 4114 take the guess-work out of dressmaking. It's a "basic figure" pattern that is first fitted and adjusted to your exact measurements in tissue; then cut out in muslin for a permanent record. Pin all of your dress patterns to it, make the necessary changes, and the finished frock will fit with custom-made perfection! Send for a Foundation Pattern today — it costs just FIFTEEN CENTS!

A delegation of women from the Presbyterian Missionary society will attend the 67th Presbyterian mission at the First Presbyterian church, Salem, Thursday and Friday. The session will close with a communion service Friday evening.

Does Your Corset Fit?

If it fits—you don't know you have it on. If it doesn't, you are uncomfortable, and your clothes don't look right. You need a change—a change to Charis. In this foundation you will be comfortable because it is adjustable to your figure type. And Charis will give you smart, young lines, good posture—in other words, complete satisfaction. Evangelist Here

Rev. Fred Clevenger, "Hoosier" evangelist from Indiana, and the "Washingtons" of Youngs own will assist in a two weeks revival at the First Friends church beginning Sunday.

Rev. Clevenger and Rev. Andrew B. Starbuck, Friends pastor, were students of Union Theological seminary at Westfield, Ind., several years ago. The "Washingtons" are known to many through their radio broadcasts.

The public is invited to the special services in the Friends church, held nightly, except Saturday, at 7:30, and on Sunday morning at 11. The revival will close April 21.

C. F. Jackson Dead

SPRINGFIELD, April 3.—Charles F. Jackson, 66, active in various lines of business in Springfield and Columbus, died last night. He was president of the Springfield City Lines, Inc., president of the Jackson funeral establishment and regarded as one of this city's wealthiest men.

Names "Army Day"

COLUMBUS, April 3.—Gov. John W. Bricker asks that flags be displayed April 6 which he proclaimed "Army Day."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sick and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name, 10¢ and 25¢. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Seeks Information On Communist Party

WASHINGTON, April 3.—An amazing tale of a proposed Silver Shit coup to give the country a "white flag" was interrupted today as the Dies committee decided to deny its quest for information on the Communist party.

Unsuccessful to date in efforts to obtain lists of party members and other data, the committee called three Communist leaders from Massachusetts and one from Philadelphia. Chairman Dies (D., Texas) said he had evidence that the party had gained rather than lost followers following the Nazi-Soviet pact and the Finnish invasion.

Committee members considered their hand strengthened by the house action in supporting their moves to punish previous Communist witnesses who have balked at giving information. Two Pittsburgh leaders have been cited for contempt and proceedings have been started against a third from Baltimore.

Killed By Train

ALLIANCE, April 3.—An eastbound Pennsylvania passenger train struck and killed an unidentified man near the S. Union ave. underpass Tuesday morning. Police describe the man as poorly dressed, slight, and between 65 and 70 years old.

Flood Scenes in Pennsylvania, Hardest Hit

Flood conditions menace hundreds of thousands of persons in seven states as rivers, swelled by thaw and rain, bulge over their banks and inundate low-lying countryside. Hardest hit of all states is Pennsylvania. The above scene was taken at Hanover, Pa., south of Wilkes-Barre. The water has almost engulfed these houses. Below, a scene at Wilkes-Barre.

Climber Is Found; Companion Missing

MOUNT HOOD, Ore., April 3.—
James Lorentz, 19, one of two mountain climbers missing since early Sunday, was found alive today.

He became separated from his companion, Gerald Herrmann, 28, in a blizzard late Sunday while alcending to climb to the top of Mount Hood.

The youth, who had taken refuge at an improvised shelter, was being brought to Timberline lodge from the vicinity of Paradise on the southwest slope.

Rangers and rescue parties from Hood river and emergency ski and snowshoe patrols found no trace of Herrmann.

Need Relief Funds

EAST LIVERPOOL, April 3.—
Municipal officials spurred efforts to obtain funds to match state grants after a $12,195 deficit in the relief department was revealed today.

Relief Director K. L. Shenkel said the situation will become acute unless funds are obtained to operate until May 14, when the voters determine the fate of a 1-mill poor relief tax levy. The deficit includes $2,000 in bills two years old.

Vice "Scattered", Says Canton Mayor

CANTON, April 3.—In the wake of an investigation by County
Prosecutor A. C. L. Barthelmeh,
Mayor Edward S. Folk today ordered an end to Canton's vice district.

Barthelmeh's campaign resulted in indictments against 27 persons.
Folk added to his order this warning:

"Prostitution will now scatter to all sections of the city. If this is what the city wants, this is what the city shall have."

The mayor observed that "it is a well known fact that the laws of the state lag behind science." "By the methods we have adopted," he said, "we were able to segregate all prostitutes where they could be watched. The object has been to prevent the spread of venereal disease and our records show that we had made great progress in that direction."

ARGENTINE GOLF CHAMPION RANKS WITH FAVORITES

Martin Pose Expected To Do Well In Masters' Tournament

By BILL BONT.
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 3.—Having had one 18-hole look and several talks with the man since he arrived here, we hereby are tabbing Martin Pose, of the Argentine, to give a good account of himself in the annual Masters' tournament golf tournament which starts tomorrow.

Since we predicted that Ben Hogan would go ahead and win several first prizes after he copped the blue ribbon in the North-South championship, we also consider ourselves considerable of a "tabber." But there is more to it than that.

There is more importantly, Martin Pose himself—a cool, self-possessed customer, 29 years old, about 145 pounds, dark-haired, compactly built, and a hitter long and straight enough to outdistance Byron Nelson consistently off the tees.

Studies Course
If it's not too much of a play on words, we'd say that Pose (you seem to pronounce it Poe-zay) has pose. He was quite expressive in his enthusiasm for the six-under-par 66 Nelson shot in his company yesterday, but it was obvious that underneath he was devoting a good 99 and 44-100 per cent of his attention to studying a course he'd never seen before.

He gave that impression all the way around—a man who might be in strange territory at the moment, but who knew his business.

After having spent 19 days at sea and 20 hours on a train, the Argentine and French open champion went around yesterday in 73, only one over par. He had three bogeys in the first 10 holes, but finished off with six pars and two birdies.

5-MAN CHAMPS BOWL TONIGHT

Detroit Goebels Defend Title In American Bowling Meet

DETROIT, April 3.—Another championship goes on the block tonight at the American Bowling Congress when the Detroit Goebel team attempts to defend its five-man title.

The state fair Coliseum has been sold out for a week in anticipation of the Goebel five's appearance. The team rolled 3,151 last year at Cleveland under the colors of the Five Electric Co., and is considered one of the strongest contenders in the present tourney.

Three weeks ago, in a successful defense of their Michigan match game title, the Goebels shot a phenomenal 3,559, one of the highest scores ever posted in recognized competition. The Schamberger five of Chicago is the present tournament leader with a 2,997 count.

The 1939 singles and doubles champions joined the ranks of ex-champions in yesterday's rolling, which failed to produce a change among the leaders. Jim Danek, Forest Park, Ill., who won with 730 at Cleveland, totaled only 497 on games of 182, 182 and 153 to finish far down the list.

Philip Icaus and Murray Fowler, Steubenville, defending doubles title, fared no better. They mustered only 1,184 compared with their 1,405 total last year. Fowler had 618, Icaus 576.

Michigan Swimmers Favored In Events

NEW YORK, April 3.—The University of Michigan team that dominated the NCAA swimming championships last week-end has its sight trained just as surely now on the national AAU meet here this weekend.

To prove it, the Wolverine 200-yard relay team broke the pool record at Columbia university last night in the school's annual water carnival. Gus Sharnett, John Gillis, Tom Williams and Charles Barber churned back and forth in the short pool to complete the distance in 1:55.2.

Al Patnik and Earl Clark of Ohio State and Jack Keating of Columbia, also pointing toward the AAU meet, gave a skillful exhibition of diving, but no scoring was done.

Miller Retires

CINCINNATI, April 3.—Freddie Miller, 29, is at the end of a 14-year boxing career which carried him to many parts of the world. He announced his retirement following a technical knockout at the hands of Herschel Joiner. Miller formerly was National Boxing association featherweight champion.

Barely Misses 300

DETROIT, April 3.—A bump against his foot robbed Charles McAnespie of Lancaster of a perfect game in the American Bowling Congress singles. He rolled eight strikes, glanced into the cutter, hit ten for a spare and three more strikes for 270. His other scores were 214 and 201.

Wrestling Results

MONTREAL — Maurice (The Angel) Tillet, 276, France, defeated Ernie Dusek, 232, Omaha, Neb., straight falls.

INDIANAPOLIS — Jim McMillen, 235, Chicago, defeated John Granovich, 246, New York, straight falls.

BOWLING RESULTS

An Owl league pin-toppler came near placing his name in bowling's Hall of Fame last night as Orville Mercer of the DuPont Paints fired a 276 score at the Grate Recreation alleys.

Mercer, an employee of the Mullins Manufacturing Corp., started off his near-perfect game with a double before coming up with a nine-pin count on his third ball. He picked up the spare and went on to post eight straight strikes, finishing with a seven-pin count on his last ball for a 276 score.

Mercer's 276 is a new high for the Owl league and one of the best single games rolled in a Salem league this season.

The DuPont Paints, holding down second place in the Owl circuit, won three games from the Old Timers on a forfeit. Mercer hit his 276 score in his team's second game. He did not bowl the first game.

Other Owl league matches saw the leading Sanitary Enamelers win three games over the Martin Tire Sales and the Trades Class gain three victories over Grate Motors on a forfeit.

The Gem Shoe Shine continued to roll toward the championship of the National league by chalking up three wins over Kelly's Service at the Masonic temple alleys.

The second-place Salem News won two of three games with W. L. Strain, while in other National league matches Grate Recreation swept three games from the Masons and the Moose won two of three heats with Art the Jeweler.

The Blue Ribbon Paints and the N. B. O. P. No. 42, leaders in the City Duckpin league, clashed at the Grate Recreation lanes with the top-ranking Paints winning two of three games. DeRienzo's Spaghetti Shoppe took two games from Martin Tires in another duckpin match.

A four-man team from the Deming Co. lost to the Canton Porcelain Co., 1930, in a special match at Canton.

Theater Attractions

Barbara Stanwyck and Fred MacMurray are seen in the romantic leads of "Remember the Night" which shows at the State tonight and Thursday.

Beulah Bondi, Elizabeth Patterson, Sterling Holloway, Willard Robertson, Paul Guilfoyle and Charlie Runt are seen in supporting roles.

A comedy romance which does have its serious moments, the picture involves an unrepentant jewel thief and a personable assistant district attorney who meet at the Christmas season and spend the holiday at his old-fashioned farm home.

The day before Christmas MacMurray hails the lovely thief into court to put her away for a long, long time. Knowing the season's spirit may influence the jury, he asks postponement of the trial until after the holiday.

About to start for his home to spend Christmas with his aunt and family, the young man's conscience nags him and he has the girl bailed out, and takes her with him when he sees the welcome she doesn't get from her family.

The atmosphere of unapproving respectability or the Christmas spirit or just plain love proves too much for her and she resolves to serve her term, while he is trying to persuade her to jump the bail he put up for her and escape. In the courtroom the jury is faced with the spectacle of a prosecutor pleading the defendant's case and the defendant demanding to be sentenced.

At The Grand

At the Grand tonight and Thursday is a double bill. "Double Alibi" is a story of a young engineer who is sought for the murder of his estranged wife and masquerades as a newspaperman until he finds the real murderer. Wayne Morris, Margaret Lindsay and William Gargan are in the cast. "Smashing the Money Ring" exposes methods used by prisoners in a great penal institution in making and passing counterfeit money. Ronald Reagan is seen as the investigator who becomes a prisoner to secure evidence. Margaret Stevenson and Eddie Foy, Jr. are also in the cast.

Homeworth Man In Commissioner Race

James G. Stewart of Homeworth, candidate for commissioner on the Republican ticket at the May 14 primary, is a new figure in county political circles.

Stewart was graduated from High School in 1921 and studied with Columbia University. He was first with the Canton Feed & Milling Co. as branch manager and later went into general merchandising.

He subsequently took a post as assistant purchasing agent with an eastern steel mill. He is now owner and operator of Stewart's Recreation rooms at Homeworth.

He has two children, is a member of the Presbyterian church and the Masonic lodge. He is president of the Homeworth Civic club.

Political Race

BOSTON—Detective Frederick Williams wonders if this could be a political snafu.

During a bookie raid he answered a ringing telephone and a man's voice inquired: "How did Third Term make out?"

Williams said he didn't know the horse was running.

"Oh, get wise," the caller snapped. "You know I bet $5 on Presidential in the fifth race at Bowie."

Williams looked it up, and sure enough, Presidential won.

Here and There About Town

Experiences In Air

Development of the airplane from its inception to present speed and safety was traced by Richard H. Depew, vice president of the Taylor Aircraft Co. of Alliance, in a fascinating talk before the Rotary club Tuesday.

Depew pointed to the fact that no fatalities had occurred on domestic air lines in this country in the last year, in emphasizing rapid developments in the 37 years of flying and especially in the last dozen years. He first learned to fly in 1911, was in the air service during the war and immediately after the war became manager of Curtiss field in Long Island.

The speaker, presented by Dr. Guy E. Byers, told of his thrilling experience in qualifying for the mythical Caterpillar club.

Science In Business

A motion picture, "Science In Business," will be shown at the dinner meeting of the Youngstown District Industrial Marketers at 8:30 p. m. Friday in the Tod hotel, Youngstown, according to an announcement today by L. H. Taylor of Salem, secretary-treasurer.

The film deals with the development of the science of distribution and something of the progress of obtaining scientific cross sections of public opinion.

Charles McDonough, president of the National Industrial Advertisers association, of which Y. D. I. M. is a chapter will be on the program for a short talk.

"Prince" In Jail Again

"Prince Ucom," the knife swallower whom police arrested here Monday night, was back in jail today—facing a 10-day diet of bread and water.

"I'll die," exclaimed the hindu, who, apparently, has been getting along quite well on a diet of metal objects. "I'll just have to have meat to eat."

Patrolman Nerr Gaunt arrested the prince yesterday afternoon on a second charge of intoxication. Mayor Norman Phillips then ordered the jail sentence and bread and water diet.

Quota Hears Reports

Quota club members, at their dinner-meeting in the Memorial building last evening, heard reports of committees, during the business session, and interesting talks on Florida during the program. Mrs. John Douth and Miss Nellie Cowan, who have visited there, discussed their trips.

The club will have a special program at the April 16 meeting at the building.

Recent Births

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodman of 930 S. Lincoln ave., are parents of a son born yesterday in Salem City hospital.

A son was born this morning in the Central Clinic to Mr. and Mrs. William Rinehart of 195 Sharp ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNeal of 1530 Newgarcon ave., are parents of a son born this noon in the Central Clinic.

Mayor's Receipts Gain

Receipts of Mayor Norman Phillips' office in March totaled $327.80, a gain of $121.65 over the previous month.

The receipts for the first three months of the year total $698.75, including January's $164.80 total and February's $269.15.

Income last month included: Fines $268.40; costs $23.40; building permits $2; and licenses $34.

Plan Inter-club Meetings

Plans for inter-club meetings will be discussed by Kiwanis club members at their monthly business meeting at noon Thursday in the Memorial building.

Columbiana Kiwanians will visit the local club Thursday evening, April 11. The Salem club members will be guests at Leetonia Thursday evening, April 18.

V. F. W. Will Meet

Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet in the hall Thursday night. All members are urged to attend the business session, to be followed by a social hour.

The V. F. W. is sponsoring the appearance of Pie Plant Pete, hill-billy radio, enter ainer, here April 12.

Hospital Notes

Ross E. Davis, R. D. 5, Salem has entered Salem City hospital for medical treatment.

Myron Charles DeJone of Washingtonville has been admitted to Salem City hospital for surgical treatment.

Recreation Club To Meet

The Salem Recreation club will meet at the Memorial building Thursday, the Senior group at 1 p. m. and the Junior, at 3:45 p. m.

BELOIT

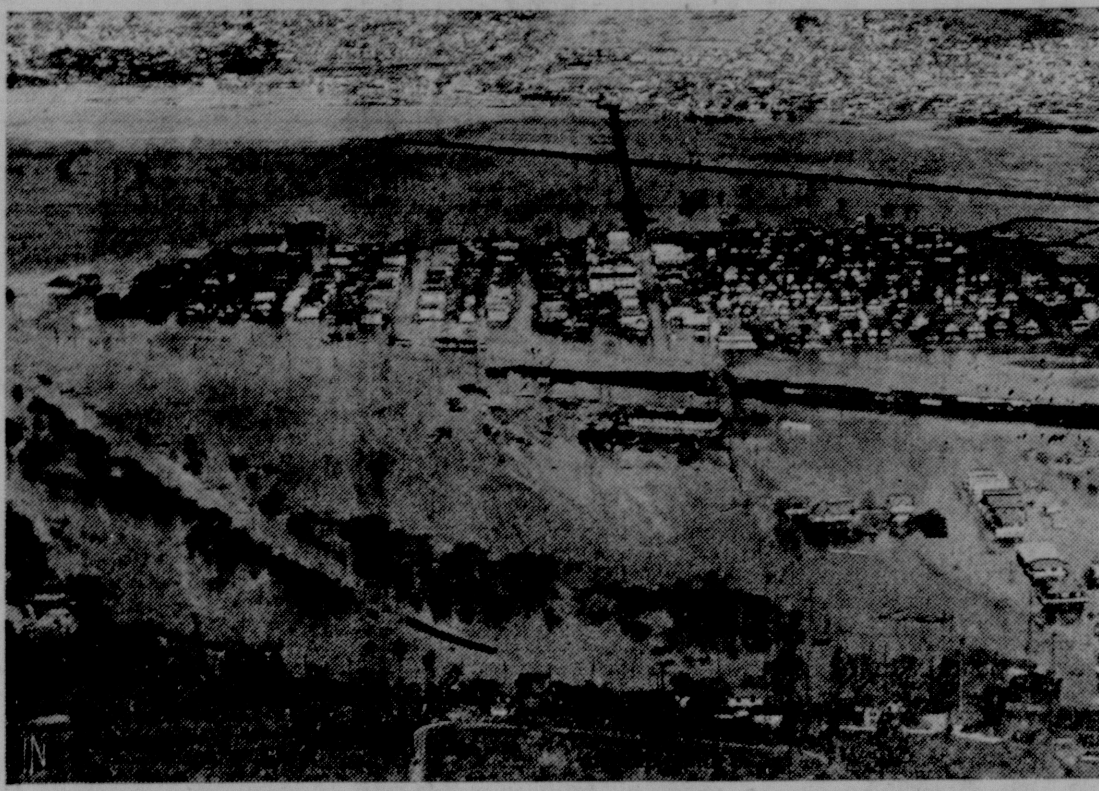

Two vacancies were left on the Beloit school faculty after the board of education held its annual meeting for the hiring of teachers Monday night.

Mrs. Roberta Hyland and Miss Marion Kistner did not apply for re-appointment and their jobs were unfilled. The remainder of the staff was rehired on the following salary contracts: Mrs. Nellie D. Foster, $1,485; G. N. Turner, $1,440; G. W. Wardell, $1,355; Mrs. Charlotte McBride, $1,170; Mr. Fred A. Zimmerman, $1,080; Charles Best, $405. Best is part-time music supervisor. The contract awarded Supt. Louis Williams in 1939 has two more years to run.

Will Pave Streets

ALLIANCE, April 3—City council has adopted preliminary legislation for paving of seven Alliance streets this summer.

Gasoline Perils Wilkes-Barre Flood Victims

Flood waters of the Susquehanna River inundate South Wilkes-Barre, Pa., as shown in this aerial view. Coast guard boats are working feverishly to evacuate refugees as danger of fire was added to the flood menace. A leaking storage tank spread a film of gasoline over the water, and authorities are enforcing rigid "no-smoking" orders.

ning mate, 34,469; William B. Rubin, Roosevelt-Farley candidate, 34,175, and Charles Henney, his running mate, 33,857.

Not Out of Running

Inasmuch as the state is entitled to four delegates-at-large, the leading Garner candidate, John N. Callahan, was not out of the running. His vote in 1,336 precincts was 33,394, less than 500 below that of Henney.

In the Republican contest for delegate-at-large, 1,324 precincts gave:

Dewey ticket—Secretary of State Fred Zimmerman 81,479, Ralph Nelson 71,829; Quincy Hale 68,928; Albert J. O'Melia 66,791.

Lieutenant Governor Walter Goodland topped the Vandenberg slate with 45,254.

The balloting indicated that Wisconsin, which gave Roosevelt large majorities in 1932 and 1936, would be a battleground next fall.

Partial returns revealed a sharp upswing in Republican sentiment, with the probability that the Democratic total would fall short, of the 1936 primary figure. Unopposed four years ago, Mr. Roosevelt polled 401,000, the Republicans about 190,000. Available reports showed the Republicans polled an average of about three more votes in each precinct yesterday than the Democrats.

The Progressive vote, sought by all sides, apparently was divided among Roosevelt candidates and both Republican factions.

Leetonia Kiwanians See Student Drama

LEETONIA, April 3 — Kiwanis club held its weekly meeting Tuesday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran church when Supt. of Schools Fred R. Narragon had charge of the program.

Four members of the Dramatic club, Donna Belle Weingard, Rudolph Kozan, Mary Whaley and Coletta Briden, presented a one-act play, "There's Always a Tomorrow" under the direction of John C. Converse.

Rev. J. W. Grishne gave the attendance prize. President Guy Mauro and Secretary G. C. Marshall will attend a meeting at Akron, Thursday evening. An inter-city meeting with the Salem club will be held April 13.

Meet at Church

Annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held Friday evening preceded by a dinner at 6:30.

Dr. Guy Nicolette is attending the dental clinic at Pittsburgh.

Pupils of St. Patrick's Catholic school will present a program in K. of C. hall at 8 tonight.

Spring Cleaning

Tower of the Sun on Treasure Island, San Francisco bay, gets a spring cleaning in preparation for the opening of the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition, May 25.

CORVALLIS, Mont.—Ben McNeff has streamlined the pioneer job of trapping wild animals. He sallies forth in a radio and electrical-equipped trailer and enjoys all the comforts of modern life while waiting for the marion, weasels, coyotes and badgers to step in o his traps.

In the Bag

LOS ANGELES—The case against James D. Bland was in the bag.

He attempted to rob a cafe by pretending he had a pistol in his pocket. A waitress gave him $18, then pushed him.

He fell backwards into a laundry bag, held by the cook, who quickly tied the top and called police. Bland pleaded to second degree robbery and was put on probation for five years.
